

Help with Dutch for Children in the municipality of Maashorst: having fun and learning at the same time!

Reading, maths and Dutch are important when you are growing up and developing as a child. We have enjoyable activities and training sessions in Maashorst that you can use. We offer methods in which you can help your child with reading, maths and Dutch in a playful and fun way.

Do you want to know more about an activity? Feel free to contact one of the providers. You will find the contact details on the website. Scan the QR code next to the activity to go to the website.

Did you know? You can borrow books and materials at the library in Maashorst until you turn 18. Go to the library and they will help you!

Book Start Coach Boekstartcoach

Reading aloud is not just a lot of fun. It also boosts the relationship between parent and child. And it is also key to promoting language skills in children. A Boekstartcoach will help with this.

Where: the Boekstartcoach comes once or several times a month to the child health clinic of the Dutch Public Health Service.

Fast Track to Reading Aloud Voorleesexpress

As a parent, do you find it difficult to help your child with language? Are you finding it difficult to read aloud as a parent? Then the Voorleesexpress is for you. A volunteer of Voorleesexpress will come to your home to help. Every week for six months. They will visit to read, talk and play games together. Your child will start to really enjoy reading and being involved with Dutch.

Where: at your home.

The project manager of the Voorleesexpress will meet up with you to see if you need help. You can find the contact details of this project manager via the link/QR code.

Early and Preschool Education

Vroeg- en Voorschoolse Educatie

Is your child finding learning Dutch difficult? Could your child do with some help catching up? We have the Vroeg- en Voorschoolse Educatie for children between the ages of 2 and 4. This is a programme linked to peuteropvang [toddler care] and at some childcare locations to offer extra help with the Dutch language and development.

Children learn while playing. This programme will help them to learn Dutch, to concentrate better and develop a larger vocabulary.

Where: at the peuteropvang (toddler care) organisation and at some childcare locations in the municipality of Maashorst.

The child healthcare centre and you can decide together whether your child would benefit from this.

Toddler care Peuteropvang

Peuteropvang is there for children from the age of 2 up to and including the age of 4 years and 6 weeks. Children will be challenged to play and learn together. Attention: Children who already go to another regular childcare location will not receive an allowance for peuteropvang.

Peuteropvang is good for the development of your child. It ensures a better start at primary school. Trained employees will check how toddlers are developing and how they can best support toddlers. Peuteropvang takes place twice during the morning or afternoon and will last 8 hours a week at most.

Where: at various locations in the municipality of Maashorst.

Costs: The costs depend on the income of parents.

The Peuteropvang organisation can make a calculation of the costs.
